

Hymns for Holy Hilarity Sunday
(Will also be displayed on Proxima)

Gathering Hymn:

Go tell it on the Smartphone
to the tune of "Go Tell It on the Mountain"

Chorus:

Go tell it on the smartphone,
FaceTime and Skype and way too many Zooms,
Go tell it on the smartphone
that Jesus is alive.

While soldiers watched the gravesite
that quiet Sunday dawn
there came a big commotion
and then the storm was gone. Chorus

The women found no body
their spices to anoint;
instead they found an angel,
God's message to appoint. Chorus

When Jesus spoke to Mary,
He said, "Don't hold me tight,
I'm going to the Father,
so-that-you'll always have my light!" Chorus

Words: Verses 1-2: Paul Lintern
Verse 3: Jonathan Hauze
Chorus: the Hauze children

Hymn of the Day:

Hark! The Herald Angel Said

Hark! the Herald Angel said
why seek Jesus with the dead?
He's not here, as you can see,
Grave cloths lie where he would be.
On your way not tell the others,
Jesus will be with his brothers.
Sisters, too, he wants to see
on the hills of Galilee.
Hark! the Herald Angel said
He is risen from the dead.

Two disciples walking down
to Emmaus with a frown:
Jesus walked and talked with them
whose hearts were low and eyes were dim.
To the stranger they both said:
Stay with us, for night's ahead.
Jesus blessed and broke the bread,
and their hearts within them sped:
Now our eyes have seen the Lord!
Now our hope has been restored!

When the doors were locked in fear,
Christ the Lord again came near.
Peace be with you! twice he said,
Now I send you in my stead.
Take the Spirit and forgive,
Show the world that I do live.
Let my love cast out all fear,
Trust that I am always near!
Witness to the Risen One,
Share my peace with everyone!
